

The footing inspection will require that the footer be properly dug and the set documents from the manufacturer be submitted to the office prior to inspection. On older homes where the manufacturers' installation instructions are not available, the footings must be placed per the Kent County, Manufactured Home Installation Code.