

At the final Inspection, the County will require that the decal of completion is in place along with the final Electrical, final Plumbing, and any other required certifications e.g. Kent Conservation for a new private land placement. The 911 address will also be required to be posted.