Kent County Department of Public Safety Packs a Paramedic Truck for Thanksgiving

Dover, Del. - At 9 o’clock in the morning, and temperatures just below freezing, Kent County Department of Public Safety personnel were out making sure that county residents have food to eat on Thanksgiving Day. Staff from the County’s Emergency Medical Services, Emergency Management, and Emergency Communications Divisions were at Redner’s Warehouse Foods, in the Greentree Shopping Center, filling a Paramedic vehicle with nonperishable items to ensure a good Thanksgiving meal for families in need. And, to start the day off, Commissioner, Jody Sweeney, 5th District, joined Paramedics to make one of the first donations of the day. Tomorrow, donations will be delivered to the Food Pantry of Delaware.
